CORNISH COLLEGE OF THE ARTS PRESENTS OUR TOWN

SEATTLE, WA – “Do any human beings ever realize life while they live it? Every, every minute?” So asks Emily Webb in Thornton Wilder’s Pulitzer Prize winning classic Our Town. Wilder’s valentine to a simpler time follows the lives of the citizens of Grover’s Corners, New Hampshire, shortly after the turn of the 20th century. Guided on our journey by the all-seeing Stage Manager, Wilder’s theme of the ephemeral nature of life is as meaningful today as it was 60 years ago. Produced by the Cornish Theater department.

About Cornish College of the Arts

Cornish College of the Arts is nationally recognized as a premier college of the visual and performing arts offering Bachelor of Fine Arts degrees in dance, theater, art, design and performance production, and a Bachelor of Music degree. A pioneer in arts education, Cornish College of the Arts sprang from the remarkable vision of Nellie Cornish, a woman determined to cultivate the arts in Seattle when it was scarcely more than a frontier town. Her philosophy of educating the artist through exposure to all the arts was progressive at the time, and continues to be innovative today.
