CORNISH COLLEGE OF THE ARTS PRESENTS
The Tempest

SEATTLE, WA – The Theater Department at Cornish College of the Arts is proud to present The Tempest, April 18 - 27. “O brave new world that has such people in’t.” So says Miranda near the end of what is thought to be Shakespeare’s final play. The Tempest is a triumphant comedy of magic, love and forgiveness where the exiled duke Prospero uses his powers to guide his enemies to repentance, his attendants to freedom, and his daughter to marriage. Once again the Cornish Theater Department presents a timeless classic in the sylvan surroundings of Volunteer Park.

The Tempest

Written by William Shakespeare

Directed by Kerry Skalsky

April 18 – 20 & 25 – 27, 3:30 pm

About Cornish College of the Arts

Cornish College of the Arts, founded by Nellie Cornish in 1914, provides aspiring artists with the educational opportunities to become professionals in their fields. The College offers Bachelor of Fine Arts degrees in Art, Dance, Design, Performance Production and Theater, and a Bachelor of Music degree. It is one of three private colleges in the United States focusing on both the performing and visual arts, and the only college of its kind in the Northwest. The College is accredited by the Northwest Commission on Colleges and Universities, and the National Association of Schools of Art and Design.
