Arts Incubator

Why
The program seeks to facilitate the risk-taking of the allied arts.

What
The Arts Incubator Program will provide both Cornish and outside user groups discounted access to the Playhouse to help incubate ideas and create new works. The program will be open to artists/organizations in all disciplines and will be focused on supporting experimentation and innovative practice among its participants.

When
Applications are available July 1-August 21, 2017. A decision will be made by Mid September. We are looking at the following availabilities for the program in the Alhadeff Studio theater:

- Residency 1
  January 1-14

- Residency 2
  January 15-28

- Residency 3
  January 29-February 4

- Residency 4 (chosen from the class of 2017)
  May 7-20

Requirements of Arts Incubator participants
- Host two showings - open to the public
- Performance NOT a requirement
Preference given to:
- Anyone meeting the mission of the program
  - Inter disciplinary
  - Risk taking
No Technical Theatrical Equipment

- To facilitate the focus of the participants we will be limiting the use of certain equipment. Examples being:
  - Projections
  - Theater lights
  - PA sound system
  - Scenery
- There is many similar equipment that will be allowed. Examples being:
  - A TV
  - Props
  - Guitar amp
  - Costumes

Long Term Vision
Create a mini festival of new ideas for Seattle that is cross art form on the Seattle Center Campus. Work with new ideas for 3 years, one year to incubate, one to experiment and widen, one to polish.