CORNISH COLLEGE OF THE ARTS
STUDENT CONDUCT POLICY

Parents and students seeking a highly sheltered environment should consider this program carefully before applying. Be aware that while most learning will take place in the Cornish studios, the College believes in the importance of experiential education and some faculty may have their students working in the urban environment taking photographs, walking, drawing, and gathering inspiration. In these instances, they will be accompanied by the faculty member or traveling in small groups. Students are expected to arrive to all classes on time and attendance is critical. If an emergency presents itself and the student will be absent or tardy, he or she is encouraged to call the Director of Extension Programs at 206.726.5148, or email astaplin@cornish.edu.

Cornish maintains a zero tolerance policy for all illegal activities, including possession or use of drugs or alcohol, or firearms, whether on or off the Cornish campus. At the discretion of the College, any student in violation of policies or otherwise creating an unsafe or unproductive climate may result in such sanctions as a warning or immediate dismissal.

TERMS OF LIABILITY

I understand that classes and activities in and outside of courses at Cornish College of the Arts can present a risk of injury to the participant. I understand that there is an inherent risk of injury that cannot be eliminated regardless of the care taken to avoid injury. I agree to assume that risk in order to participate in these activities.

I acknowledge that the participant is in good health and does not have any history of a medical or physical condition that would place the participant at risk due to the participant’s medical or physical condition.

I do hereby release and forever discharge Cornish College of the Arts, their predecessors and successors, employees, agents and assigns, and all other persons, corporations, and entities from all claims, expenses, attorney fees, and causes of action or suits of any kind or nature associated with the participant's involvement with Cornish classes and college activities.
